

Dickie Humphries

Rākau Tautoko Practitioner

Skill

-
- Facilitation
 - Programme design
 - Community action
 - Advocacy
 - Public Policy
 - Youth Engagement
 - Sustainable development

Experience

Zeal Education Trust / LFT Chapters Project Coordinator

2015 - to 2016 Auckland based nationally focused.

Led a youth mental health project designed to reduce the stigma and discrimination held against young people who experience mental distress.

Designed and facilitated the training programme for youth workers to safely and effectively run the project in schools across New Zealand.

Raleigh International / Country Programme Coordinator (Malaysian Borneo)

2013 -2015, Sabah, Malaysia

Grew the scope of interventions that focused on providing remote communities with access to safe water and sanitation, protecting vulnerable natural environments and building resilient communities.

Created processes to measure leadership development, designed and implemented retrospective impact assessments, wrote and implementing an active citizenship course, fostered the development of nearly 500 volunteers and ensured the sustainable outcomes of 37 community, environmental and leadership projects over the Malaysian State of Sabah.

Oxfam Australia / Learning and Development Coordinator

2011 - 2013, Australian based internationally focused

Designed and managed online courses for 150 youth activists from across the world to create social change through sustainable projects and innovative advocacy.

Designed the learning framework and facilitated workshops to over 20 youth activists to improve their community and political engagement at the Rio+20 UN Conference on Sustainable Development and the 2013 World Social Forum.

Facilitated a learning project assisting over 20 young gender justice activists to address economic injustices at an international and grassroots level in settings as diverse as refugee camps in Tanzania, indigenous communities in Mexico and LGBT communities in Colombia, sex workers in the Philippines and girls education in Pakistan.