

Jo Flavell

Rākau Tautoko Practitioner

Skill

-
- Community-Led Development
 - Community Research
 - Project Development and Management
 - Youth-Led Initiatives
 - Facilitation
 - Cross Cultural Engagement
 - Social Work
 - Mentoring
-

Experiences

Technical Training / Mentor

August 2017 - Current, Tāmaki, Auckland

Supporting the youth in The Youth Connection Programme 'Technical Training' through Te Oro Music and Arts Centre.

Specialist Rehabilitation Services / Social Worker

March 2016 - Current, Auckland, Northland

Supporting Whanau and individuals to connect and access key supports within the community and the disability sector. Providing advocacy to ensure correct resources are obtained to ensure individuals and whanau are able to achieve their rehabilitation goals.

Auckland University / Research Assistant

March 2014 - current, Ranui/Glen Innes

Connecting with community participants to take part in research interviews with a focus around family violence and healthy relationships, development and understanding of a community readiness model of working..

Te Waipuna Puawai / Social Worker/Programme Coordinator

Jan 2009 - August 2013, Ellerslie/Glen Innes

Coordinating and facilitating a Young Mothers Support Programme. Collaborating with community organisations to deliver antenatal classes and mentoring for young parents. Social work support.

Education

Massey University / Bachelor of Social Work

2004 - 2008, Albany, Auckland

Excel School of Performing Arts / Certificate in Performing Arts majoring in Drama

March 2003 - November 2003, New Lynn, Auckland

RĀKAU
TAUTOKO